Greetings from the beach

Hi Gran, Maurice and Uncle Jack,

Yesterday, Mum, Dad, Eloise and I went to the beach. We arrived at the camping grounds early and after we pitched our green canvas tent, we rolled out the bright red sleeping bags we got for Christmas.

Next, we found our wide-brimmed hats and rubbed some sunscreen on because it was a hot sunny day.

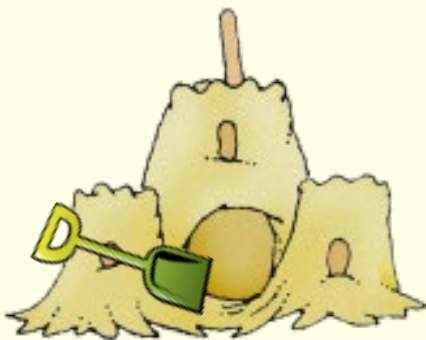

Then we walked down to the beach to look for seashells. I splashed in the water and found some nice shells, and I used these on my sandcastle.

Then I saw some funny seagulls sitting on a wall. You can see some seagulls on this card. I had a wonderful day at the beach. I especially loved the feel of sand between my toes.

I will write again soon.

Love and kisses

Harley
