

OUR HOMES...

a ROSIE AND WALLACE STORY.

The men had cut down many trees in the bush.
"We have to do something about the trees!" said Rosie.
"Yes," said Wallace. "It's up to us to do something."

So, Rosie and Wallace asked the men not to cut down the trees.

*"We have to cut down the trees," said the men.
"People want to put homes here."*

First, Rosie and Wallace showed the men Bluey's home, with the fluffy rug and new lamp.

Next, they showed the men Ms Frilly's school. They showed them the school pool where Micky and Pink like to play.

After that, they showed the men the tunnel where old Tom lives.

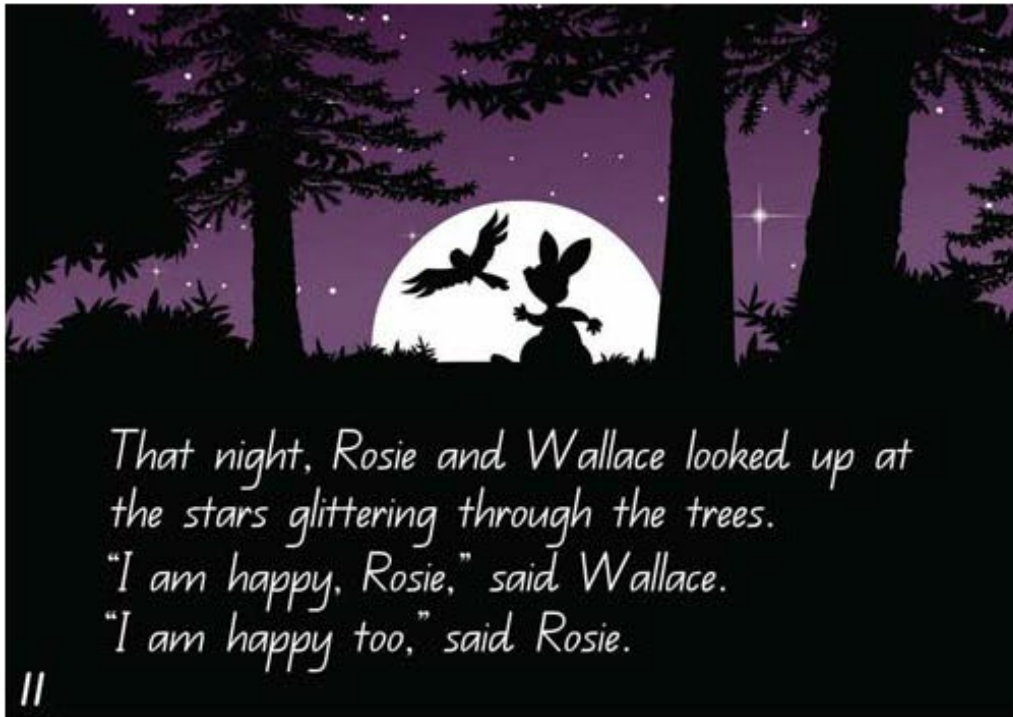

Finally, they showed the men the nest where Chuckle and Giggle were learning to fly.

The men said, "We cannot cut down these trees so people can put homes here."

There are already homes here."

*That night, Rosie and Wallace looked up at the stars glittering through the trees.
"I am happy, Rosie," said Wallace.
"I am happy too," said Rosie.*
