

RosIE at THE vET'S... a RosIE and wallacE story.

Rosie had hit her head and had to live with the vet for a few days. While she was there, she wrote a letter to Wallace.

Dear Wallace,
I miss you very much.
It is very odd living here.
I live next to five birds.
They have never seen the bush.
Isn't that sad?

Some puppies live here too.
I don't think they could live
in the bush!

They are too little.

The vet is a good person.
After dinner, she puts a blanket over me so I am warm.
I miss you Wallace.
Your loving friend
Rosie

A few days later, the vet delivered the letter.
"I like getting letters," said Wallace.
"But they are not as good as having Rosie
here with me."

"Here is another delivery for you, Wallace," said the vet.

"ROSIE!"
