

This package of curriculum resources provides learning opportunities for students to continue their educational development and progress while not being able to access a school.

It is anticipated that the resources could be used in a variety of contexts, including teacher-directed, parent-supported or students working independently. However, students in Prep to Year 3 will require adult support to read and understand instructions and possibly scribe responses and answers to questions.

As students work through these resources, it is important that regular contact be maintained between classroom teachers and parents/students.

No assessment lessons or tasks are included in this package.
